

Thu Phong Vuong

Thu Phong Vuong is a specialist in cross-cultural issues, team / leadership development and international project- management / communication. He manages large scale projects for clients in a wide variety of business areas particularly those with an Asian focus. His consulting work covers market entry strategies, organization and international project-management. He has worked with many international companies as a management consultant, moderator and management trainer, including Volkswagen, Colgate Palmolive, Airbus Germany, Siemens, The University of St.Gallen Hewlett Packard, and the Ashoka Youth Venture.

Thu Phong speaks and works in German, English, Chinese Mandarin and Chinese Teo-Chew. He holds a Masters degree in International Business and Cultural Studies from the University of Passau in Germany and, in addition, has studied in the USA and Taiwan. He is a member of SIETAR and is experienced in working with the MBTI and Belbin Personal / Team assessments. He has wide international consulting experience in the Human Resource function and brings great rigour, results orientation and a well placed humour to all of his work.

He is a German citizen of Chinese heritage and lives in Hamburg.

Thu.Phong@bizlernsol.com