

NISHI LEVITT

Nishi Levitt has more than 20 years of professional experience. She has been in learning and development for more than a decade and has had been a part of two companies that have been ranked #1 in the world for learning and development; Satyam achieved the #1 rank in 2007 and Booz Allen achieved the same in 2006.

Her most recent role was General Manager for Satyam Computer Services –now Mahindra Satyam (Hyderabad). Nishi was part of the creation of the internationally recognized Satyam School of Leadership. She led the “Emerging and New Leaders” where under her leadership, 600+ leaders participated. The process was responsible for a significant reduction in turnover among new leaders resulting in a savings of more than $6M a year. The process won an Award Citation from American Society for Training & Development (ASTD).

Prior to joining Satyam, Nishi was a Learning Manager for more than 8 years at Booz Allen Hamilton, NY a global strategy and consulting firm.

Having studied predominantly in South Africa – Nishi has had the opportunity to live and work across 4 continents. Her global experiences and extensive travel afforded Nishi the ability to pick up new languages and embrace diverse and cultural experiences.

Nishi enjoys working with children and getting involved in Community Service. She has played a key role in the starting of “Grassroots” for children in South Africa, played a committee member role for the “Children’s Aid Society” in New York, designed and led + 20 workshops for “Training Futures” in Virginia, and on our very own turf in had opportunities to connect with the “Sri Maheshwari School” of +190 children and Siria Orphanage of +90 in Hyderabad.

Nishi is married to David Levitt and together they have a six year old son Ethan who studies at the Esperanza school in Banjara Hills, Hyderabad. Together the family just celebrated 3 years of living and working in India.

Nishi currently represents Business Learning Solutions GmbH in the APAC region.
